JUDGING CRITERIA - National Car Club of the Year

This award will be given to the UK's top car club who has demonstrated outstanding member initiatives and engagement over the last year. These initiatives may include, but not be limited to:

- new club developments leading to a dramatic growth in membership
- new or improved efforts to help preserve or promote their cars
- new or improved member communication and education opportunities
- amazing events, runs or rallies or charitable activities.

Has your club had an outstanding year? Tell us what you have been doing and why 2018 was exceptional for your club! Judges will be looking for specific examples to illustrate the wide variety of initiatives and engagements offered by your club to its members.
